Dear [Redacted]

In accordance with our conversation of January 16th, I am enclosing a list of documents which have been made available to this Subcommittee which we have found to be of particular importance to our investigation.

As discussed, I would like to set up a meeting, within ten (10) days, with the appropriate Agency officials to discuss the Subcommittee's use of the information contained in these documents and to determine how best to release information to the public while safeguarding sensitive Agency sources and methods.

Also enclosed is a copy of my letter of November 14th [Redacted] listing five documents on which we requested the same type of discussion. To date I have received no reply to that letter.

STAT

I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Michael J. Herschman
